

Quality Education for Global Citizenship

Quality Teaching
for the World of Work

Teachers' Union Conference October 2013

Quality Teaching for the World of Work

- Beginning with the end in mind
 - The Quality Worker
- Investigating the source
 - The Quality Teacher
- Examining the content
 - The Quality Education

Beginning with the end in mind

THE QUALITY WORKER

The Quality Worker

- Punctual
- Appropriately Dressed
- Adheres to rules and regulations
- Positive in Attitude
- Dependable and Flexible
- Basic Literacy
- Team Player

Investigating the source

THE QUALITY TEACHER

The Quality Teacher

- High expectations for all students
- Clearly written objectives
- Prepared and Organised
- Engages students
- Forms strong relationships with students
- Master of subject matter
- Communicates frequently with parents

Examining the content

THE QUALITY EDUCATION

The Quality Education (UNICEF Paper 2000)

- Learners who are healthy, well-nourished and ready to participate and learn, and supported in learning by their families and communities;
- Environments that are healthy, safe, protective and gender-sensitive, and provide adequate resources and facilities;

The Quality Education (UNICEF Paper 2000)

- Content that is reflected in relevant curricula and materials for the acquisition of basic skills, especially in the areas of literacy, numeracy and skills for life, and knowledge in such areas as gender, health, nutrition, HIV/AIDS prevention and peace.

The Quality Education (UNICEF Paper 2000)

- Processes through which trained teachers use child-centred teaching approaches in well-managed classrooms and schools and skilful assessment to facilitate learning and reduce disparities.
- Outcomes that encompass knowledge, skills and attitudes, and are linked to national goals for education and positive participation in society.

Quality Education for the World of Work – Reality Check

- Worker Characteristics
 - Punctual
 - Appropriately Dressed
 - Adheres to rules and regulations
 - Positive in Attitude
 - Dependable and Flexible
 - Basic Literacy
 - Team Player
- Education Required
 - Content that is reflected in relevant curricula and materials for the acquisition of basic skills, especially in the areas of literacy, numeracy and skills for life, and knowledge in such areas as gender, health, nutrition, HIV/AIDS prevention and peace.

Quality Teaching for the World of Work

Group Assignment

Current teaching practices

Recommended teaching practices

Quality Education for Global Citizenship

Quality Teaching for the World of Work

Inclusive good-quality education is a foundation for dynamic and equitable societies. Archbishop Desmond Tutu

